Know Yourself
The more you know about yourself, the better chance you have for choosing a career and education path that is right for you. There are many aspects of self-awareness that are important to career decisions. Some that we frequently discuss are: APPTIDUES, BELIEFS, INTERESTS, PERSONALITY TYPE, and SKILLS.

Explore Your World
Take time to find out about as many career opportunities and options as you can.

Research Your Options
Sharpen the focus of your exploration by gathering additional information about occupations, programs of study and training, and schools that interest you.

Plan Your Future
School is your career now! It provides you with many opportunities to explore your interests and prepare for your future. You have the chance to develop your talents and skills into valuable assets. You can make the most of your school years by choosing courses that fit your career and educational goals.